

How can businesses develop gender-responsive action?

- Give more women a seat at the table
- Build social and gender considerations into climate action
- Improve the representation of women on the ground

